And we're off!

With 107 high school all-star players representing 9 different states, the USA Rugby South Panthers and the Tennessee Tri-Stars are on their way to Las Vegas, NV for the Las Vegas Invitational 7's tournament (USA 7's).

Tournament play begins tomorrow, Thursday, March 2, in this renown tournament that boasts over 80,000 rugby fans from 16 different countries with men's and women's teams competing in several different levels. The Panthers are competing in the u18 Boy's Elite, u18 Girls Elite, u16 Boys, u14 Boys, and the High School Boys Open brackets, while the Tri-Stars are competing in the u16 Boys, High School Boys Open, and the High School Girls Open. <https://www.usasevens.com/las-vegas/2017-lvi-registered-teams/>

The Panthers and Tri-Stars are the largest group attending with a traveling party of over 300 people. As you can imagine, this is a tremendous undertaking and thus the Panther and Tri-Star administration, coaches, staff, and all who have and are helping to make our program such a success are commended. This year's LVI 7's tour leaders and staff include Mark Williams (Panther and Tri-Star Director), Theresa Williams (Management and Travel), along with Sean Borman (Team Trainer).
